

The collection of material from the Fenton Ladies Choir on the History to Her Story website, covers the time period of 1927 – 1982. In 1950 the choir sang at the Festival of Britain competition, and in the late 70s made radio and television broadcasts.

Fenton Ladies Choir – Worksheet 1

Glossary:

Rubato = flexible, not in strict time or on the beat.

Fortissimo = very loud and strong

Allargando = gradually slowing down the speed/tempo of singing

Vigorous = energetic

Precision = accurately, being exact.

1. Look at the source and the photo for Fenton Ladies Choir – Describe how they are dressed?

2. Look at the Certificate and the short newspaper extract. Do you think the Choir was successful?

3. Imagine that you are a newspaper reporter, and that you have watched the Fenton Ladies Choir take part in the Mrs Sunderland Musical Competition: using the mark sheet and the remarks on it, their photos, and other sources, write a short article for your newspaper describing the event.